Ivan you told me when I last saw you that when we first met and took photographs of you in Buenos Aires that "you were at the Cross roads of your life" You blossomed as I knew you would — now married to the girl, Luz — who you fell in love with when you were 13 years old — and as I look at you Ivan, hugging you in friendship thru my camera lens; I know now that all those good times we shared together in your beloved country is the way I will find the Argentina of your youth.
